

Issue 128 Reviews

Our latest reviews for your reading and listening pleasure!!

Tron Syversen – SACRED DREAMS: It's not necessary to go to Tron's home in Norway to witness the sonic beauty he creates for you, especially on tunes like the wonderful "In A Silent Place"... while it's not an earth-shattering composition, it will put you right where silent comes from. The (seemingly) moonlit strings on "Moonlight Reflections" combine perfectly with strum-style guitar to put you in mind of the clearest nights on the planet. It was the oboe-sound on "All Through The Night" that kept me listening over & over – it clearly won my vote for favorite track of the ten offered up for your aural enjoyment. I give Tron a MOST HIGHLY RECOMMENDED... not so much for hardcore jazzers, perhaps, but for those who love well-crafted & spirit-infused musical adventure. "EQ" (energy quotient) rating is 4.97. Get more information at Tron's pages. Rotcod Zzaj

http://rotcodzzaj.com/wordpress/?page_id=3538