GLOBAL JOURNEY MUSIC

TRON SYVERSEN/Peaceful Journey:

A theatrical new-ager, Syversen is as much Windham Hill as he is ECM with a solid smattering of impressionistic classical in the mix as well. Along the lines of the deeper stuff from groups like Enigma or Adiemus, this is a very satisfying session for those that want more than chant but don't want fluff. Everyone on board knows how to hit their marks, and a lush, lightly mysterious set is the result. Easily the kind of stuff the new age fan has been looking for and probably not finding across the last several years.
